Dear Candidate,

Congratulations on your decision to participate in this year’s student body officer elections at Utah State University! We are excited for the weeks ahead of you and wish you the best of luck with your campaign. The USUSA Elections Committee is available to answer any questions or concerns you have about the elections process.

A filing fee of $20 (checks made payable to USUSA Elections) must be paid upon submitting your declaration of candidacy form. Please contact us if you wish to appeal this fee. Declaration of candidacy forms can be submitted to the Student Involvement and Leadership Center, TSC 326, as early as Tuesday, January 17 at 8:30 a.m. and no later than Monday, January 23 at 4:30 p.m.

The USUSA Elections Committee will produce a 30-second video of your campaign platform and take your photo to include in election advertising. You may sign up for your video and photo time when you turn in your official declaration of candidacy form. Shoots will take place during the week of January 23-January 27. You can also reserve your A-frame spots upon form submission.

Please educate yourself on the USUSA Elections By-laws (a copy of them can be found in this packet). There are many changes from previous years’ by-laws, so we encourage you to familiarize yourself with them. Candidates are expected to adhere strictly to the bylaws or face the risk of penalty.

A mandatory election orientation meeting will be held Tuesday, January 24, 2017 at 7 p.m. in the Taggart Student Center Auditorium. If you plan on running for any position, you must attend this meeting. Please note that a campaign manager or committee member may not attend in your place, but may attend the meeting with you. You will meet the USUSA Elections Committee members, any of whom you can contact if you have questions.

Please don’t hesitate to contact us at elections.ususa@usu.edu or stop by TSC 326 should you have questions regarding this year’s elections.

Again, we congratulate you on your decision to run for office. Good luck!

Sincerely,

Ryan Jensen, USUSA Elections Co-Chair
Brenna Kelly, USUSA Elections Co-Chair
In strict compliance with the Constitution of the Utah State University Student Association, Article III, Section 3, candidates for office must adhere to the following requirements:

- Carrying a minimum of 12 credits per semester or be considered a full-time student by the School of Graduate Studies (including the semester candidates seek for office.).
- Have a USU cumulative G.P.A. of 2.5 or above.
- Free from academic warning, probation, or suspension.
- Payment of the $20 filing fee due upon candidate declaration.
- Senatorial candidates must be a declared major in the college they wish to represent.

For further clarification, reference Article III, Section 3 of the USUSA Constitution below:

Section 3. Eligibility

A. No student shall be eligible to run or apply for any USUSA office if not in good standing. Once in office, any officer who fails to maintain good standing will immediately be placed on probation.

Good Standing shall be defined as:

1. Carrying a minimum of 12 credits per semester, or considered a full-time student by the School of Graduate Studies during their entire term of office, including the spring semester of election or appointment. Regional Campus and Distance Education students are in good standing if carrying a minimum of six credits per semester as an undergraduate, or a minimum of three credits per semester as a graduate student during the academic year.

2. Maintaining a USU cumulative GPA at or above 2.5 if the student has completed two or more semesters at USU. If the student has not completed two semesters at USU, then the student’s overall college cumulative GPA must be at or above 2.5.

3. Maintaining a GPA of 2.5 or higher, for all semesters while in office, including the spring semester of election or appointment. The summer semester shall only count for or against an officer’s good standing if nine or more credits are taken. However, all summer classes will be calculated into the cumulative GPA.

4. Free from academic warning, probation, or suspension.

Utah State University Student Association
Election By-laws – Logan Campus

This document is ancillary to the USUSA Constitution.

The Utah State University Student Association election by-laws govern the election of both USUSA candidates and referenda affecting the USU student body. These by-laws derive their authority from the USUSA Constitution Article III, Section 7.

Candidates, campaign committees and supporters, proponents, and opponents of referenda must follow all university policies, and local, state, and federal law.

Definitions

Active Campaigning: engaging directly with students with the intent of pursuing their vote. Includes any action where a candidate and/or his/her committee are directly soliciting students for votes (e.g. handing flyers directly to students, etc.)

Actual Cost: is defined as the cost presented on an official sales receipt.

A-frames: are defined as a freestanding object that must fit in an 8’x8’x8’ square.

Bribery: is defined as the act of offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting any item of value that may influence the actions of a person.

Campaign Committee Members: people who are specifically helping candidates campaign; must be current students from USU.

Campaign Materials: any images, text, or physical item with the purpose of garnering attention and increasing awareness for a specific candidate or ballot item.

Classroom: any gathering of faculty members and students for the purpose of teaching and learning, authorized by USU or any of its units (See USU Student Code of Conduct Article V.3.C.). This includes, but is not limited to, online Classroom forums, emails lists, and other activities such as field trips and labs.

Donations: defined as any monetary contributions or physical good used as Campaign Materials (see Article V.A.3).

Fair Market Value: an estimate of the value of property and services based on what an average buyer would pay to an average seller in the market.

Good Standing (behavioral and academic):
- Carrying a minimum of 12 credits per semester, or considered a full-time student by the School of Graduate Studies during their entire term of office, including the spring semester of election or appointment.
- Maintaining a USU cumulative GPA at or above 2.5 if the student has completed two or more semesters at USU. If the student has not completed two semesters at USU, then the student’s overall college cumulative GPA must be at or above 2.5.
- Maintaining a GPA of 2.5 or higher, for all semesters while in office, including the spring semester of election or appointment. The summer semester shall only count for or against an officer’s Good Standing if nine or more credits are taken. However, all summer classes will be calculated into the cumulative GPA.
- Free from academic warning, probation, or suspension.
- Free from major USU Student Code violations and/or student conduct probation.

Passive Campaigning: any action where a candidate is NOT directly soliciting students for votes. Students may communicate with organizations and individuals to learn the issues facing students to gain insight as to how to address those issues and concerns.

Poster: printed or other types of Campaign Materials on paper to be hung in appropriate buildings on campus. This excludes digital screens.

Slander: is defined as the spreading of an untruth about other candidates or their campaigns in a way that may hurt their campaign or reputation.

Reception: meeting organized by the Elections Committee where students meet the candidates and ask the candidates questions about their platform and goals

I. Candidate Requirements
   A. All candidates, including write-ins, shall qualify according to Article III, Section 3 of the USUSA Constitution (the following sections related to eligibility are a summary from the Constitution and should be automatically updated).
   B. Eligibility
      a. No Student Shall be eligible to run or apply for any USUSA office if not in Good Standing. Once in office, any officer who fails to maintain Good Standing will immediately be placed on probation.
      b. If after elections a USUSA officer does not maintain Good Standing in any sense, then the following terms of probation apply
         i. Probation will last one semester and serve as an opportunity for the officer to regain Good Standing.
         ii. Any USUSA officers not in Good Standing will be ineligible to receive their USUSA scholarship; however, the monthly stipend is excluded from this restriction. For those officers not receiving a monthly stipend, they will be eligible to receive $1,200.00 for the semester they are on probation.
         iii. Any USUSA officer who fails to regain Good Standing at the completion of the probation period will be immediately removed from office.
         iv. Any appeals to the eligibility criteria may be submitted to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. Any decisions made by this office are final.
         v. The USUSA Executive Council will have the authority to place an officer on probation by a 2/3-majority vote if the officer is deemed to have acted in a way that is unbecoming of the appropriate office.
   C. Graduate Studies Senator: Candidates running for Graduate Studies Senator must be a current fully matriculated graduate student in the School of Graduate Studies by the filing deadline. Matriculation requires the student to be in Good Standing and taking graduate courses.
   D. College Senatorial Positions: Candidates for the office of a college Senator must be registered in the college they wish to represent as of the filing deadline for Declaration of Candidacy in the USUSA Election. Graduate students may run for a senatorial position in their respective college.
   E. Write-In Candidates
      a. Upon entering a race, write in candidates must file a Declaration of Candidacy, but are not required to pay the $20 filing fee.
      b. Write-in candidates will not be included in ads, pictures, or biographies paid for by the Elections Committee.
      c. Write-in candidates must notify the elections Committee if they choose to participate in forums and debates during USUSA Elections Week.

d. Write-in candidates will not be present on the primary election ballot and will only be included on the final election ballot if:
   i. A candidate comes in either first or second in total vote count, is eligible to hold office;
   ii. And reaches or exceeds 10% of the vote total in the respective election. (See EC Bill 2014-06)

e. Write-in candidates must abide by the election by-laws:

F. Candidate Requirement Appeals

a. Extenuating circumstances may be cause to appeal candidate eligibility.

b. The Vice President of Student Affairs Office may grant exception to candidate requirements based on circumstances. Those wishing to appeal candidacy, see TSC 326.

II. Timeline

A. Deadlines:

a. A signed Declaration of Candidacy form is required to be an official candidate. The current USUSA officer holding the position should sign the form. If the current officer is unavailable, or is a candidate, then the appropriate USUSA advisor may sign. This form and $20 non-refundable filing fee are due in TSC 326 on the date set by the Elections Committee.
   i. Any student may apply for a waiver of this $20 fee through a written appeal to the Student Involvement and Leadership Center (SILC).
   ii. The $20 filing fee is for processing purposes and publicity by the Elections Committee. Cash or checks (payable to USUSA Elections) will be accepted. The filing fee is not included in the total campaign expenditure limit of $200 or $400.

b. A candidate wishing to withdraw his or her Declaration of Candidacy may do so at any time in writing by submitting it to the Elections Co-Chairs prior to the announcement of final election results. After the Elections Co-Chairs have received the withdrawal, the candidate cannot be reinstated and the $20 filing fee will be forfeited. If after the filing deadline, there are no constitutionally qualified candidates for an office(s), the Elections Committee shall reopen the filing process for that particular office(s), accepting Declaration of Candidacy forms at the date set by the Elections Committee. Notice of the secondary deadline shall be advertised in The Utah Statesman.

B. Declared candidates must be at the mandatory campaign meeting held by the Elections Committee to review the election policies and procedures. Absence will result in automatic forfeiture of candidacy unless prior approval of the Election Co-chairs. While campaign managers are encouraged to come, they cannot take the place of the candidate.

III. Voting

A. Plurality to Elect:

a. The names of the two candidates on the primary ballot receiving the greatest number of votes shall be placed on the final ballot.

b. In final elections and special elections, the candidate or ballot item that has the greatest number of votes will be declared the winner.

B. Ballots:
a. The names of all candidates for each office shall be placed on the ballot in alphabetical order by last name, along with a space(s) for write-in candidate(s).
   i. All names of all candidates for each office shall be placed on the ballot in alphabetical order by last name, along with a space(s) for write-in candidate(s).
      a. Permanent nicknames, however, may be approved by the Elections Committee (e.g., Bob for Robert, Sue for Susan, etc.).
      b. Ballots will be accessed via www.vote.usu.edu
C. Eligibility to Vote:
   a. A voter must be a current student of the Logan Campus of USU.
      i. In USUSA Presidential and select referenda, Elections will be open to all Regional Campus students.
   b. Proxy voting is prohibited.
   c. In senatorial races, students are only eligible to vote for senators of their respective college.
      i. If a student has declared a major in two or more separate colleges, they are eligible to vote for the senatorial candidates running to represent each college. Only matriculated graduate students can vote for the Graduate Studies Senator.
D. Counting Votes:
   a. Votes shall be tabulated immediately following the closing of the polls.
   b. No ballots will be accepted after the published time of closing. Votes are tabulated and verified by a committee of two student involvement advisors, one staff member of the Information Technology (IT) department, Elections Co-Chairs, and the USUSA President.
      i. In the event that the current USUSA President is running for office, the officer following the line of authority shall take his/her place.
   c. Tie-Breaking Procedures:
      i. Should an exact numerical tie occur between any candidates running for a USUSA elected position, the following procedure has been outlined and established as the method of breaking the tie.
         a. Upon announcement of the final elections results, the tied candidates will be brought together by the Elections Co-Chairs, the current officer in the position of the tied candidates, and at least one of the student involvement advisors to follow these tie-breaking procedures.
         b. The tied candidates will be given one hour to choose, at their discretion, whether they would like to participate in a coin toss by neutral party or in a special one-day election to break the tie.
            a. This election will occur within two weeks of the final announcement, will be on the selected day from 9:00 am to 3:00 p.m., and all election by-laws shall apply (including remaining within the given budget allotment).
            b. If the candidates cannot come to a consensus within the hour given, the choice will be removed and a special one-day election will occur.
      ii. If a second numerical tie should occur between the same candidates, the tie-breaking procedure will be a coin toss by a E. On-Campus Voting Locations
   a. Candidates and their Committee Members may not have voting stations at their A-frames. Candidates and their Committee Members may not offer personal devices to students for voting.
   b. The Elections Co-chairs will have voting locations throughout campus for the convenience of students.

F. Results:
   a. All results are final after votes are tabulated and verified. This extends to candidates, initiatives, referenda, or any other matter submitted to the USU student body for a vote.

IV. Money and Finance:
   A. Campaign Value:
      a. Candidates violating the campaign value limit (overspending) will be referred to the Student Hearing Board.
         i. Executive Council candidates shall not exceed $400.
         ii. Senatorial candidates shall not exceed $200.
      b. Audits
         i. All candidates must submit a complete list of receipts for all campaign expenditures, Donations and fair market materials to the Elections Committee.
         ii. Candidates will be required to have two election audits; one during primary elections and one during final elections. Candidates may be subject to additional audits if deemed necessary by the Elections Committee.
         iii. For items not assigned a Fair Market Value in the Elections Packet, candidates must provide itemized receipts. If a receipt for an item is not available, or if the item has been donated, it will be assessed at Fair Market Value by the Elections Committee.
         iv. These financial statements must be submitted to the Elections Committee by the specified audit deadlines. In the case of failure to submit a financial statement by the specified deadline, the candidate is disqualified.
      c. Fair Market Value (FMV)
         i. It is the responsibility of the candidate to obtain from the Elections Committee a FMV for any campaign material not appearing on the list provided at the mandatory candidate meeting.
         ii. Should a candidate feel that FMV has been determined inaccurately or unfairly, they may submit a written appeal to the SILC Director and the Student Advocate VP who will then make a decision. All decisions by the SILC Director and Student Advocate VP will be final. The decision will then be communicated to the Elections Co-Chairs.
            a. If the Student Advocate VP is running for office, the SILC Director will select an elected student body officer to take their place.

V. Campaign Rules:
   A. Neutrality:
      a. Elections Committee Members, current USUSA officers, and Student Hearing Board members are not allowed to wear neutral third party.

b. Membership

i. The USUSA Hearing Board shall consist of the students on the USU Student Conduct Hearing Board.

a. A quorum of at least five members of the Hearing Board must be present to hear and rule on grievances.

b. The student members of the Hearing Board Pool shall be appointed by the newly elected USUS President and approved by a majority vote of the USUSA Executive Council. The former President will assist the newly elected USUSA President during the selection process.

c. The Hearing Board Pool Chair shall be a student appointed by the USUSA President.

d. Board members serve a one-year term, although members can be appointed to serve more than one term. All new student appointments to the Hearing Board Pool shall be made on or before July 1 of each year.

e. One voting member of the USUSA Executive Council will be appointed to the Hearing Board by the President. The members of the Hearing Board shall be subject to the same eligibility requirements as the USUSA officers as outlined in Article III of the USUSA Constitution (see Article III, Section 3). Vacancies shall be filled as needed.

c. The Violation Process will be as follows:

i. During Elections Week, any charges of violation of campaign regulations will be submitted in writing to the Hearing Board within 24 hours of the incident, but no later than the closing of the polls.

ii. If an elections bylaw violation comes to light after the final election results have been announced, a complainant may file a grievance until noon on the day of inauguration.

   a. Prior to the Election, there is no time limit, although the Hearing Board will not meet regularly, and will hear cases on an as-needed basis.

iii. In the event of a violation, or a grievance being filed, both the accuser and accused must be called before the Hearing Board together. Upon hearing both sides, the Hearing Board will render a decision and assess a penalty if necessary.

iv. Election results for the office(s) in question will not be made public until all grievances have been heard by the Hearing Board, ruled upon penalties assessed, and the candidate(s) notified of the decision.

v. Candidates will be responsible for submitting grievances for his/her own campaign.
   a. Any student must file an election grievance who was affected by, or a direct witness to, any violation of election by-laws by campaigns or those campaigning for ballot issues.

vi. The burden of proving that a by-laws violation occurred is on the person filing the grievance.

vii. Explanation of how to file a grievance will be discussed at the mandatory elections meeting.

viii. Penalties
   a. Penalties from which the Hearing Board may choose are as follows:
      i. Confiscation and/or restriction of Campaign Materials (e.g. only one signs as opposed to two);
      ii. Restrictions on campaign times (e.g. not being allowed to attend town hall meetings or campaign on campus during certain times);
      iii. Budget restrictions;
      iv. Ordering a new election for a particular office pursuant to Article III, Section 1 of the USUSA Constitution;
      v. Disqualification of candidate(s);
      vi. Or fines to be paid if the violation is discovered after the election has already taken place.

1. Fines shall not exceed the respective candidate’s campaign expenditure limit (see Article IV.A.2.a. and IV.A.2.b).
A-Frame Placement Map

Candidate A-Frames may be placed on the highlighted areas of the map below:

*Senatorial candidates may place A-Frames near their respective college if prior permission is granted.

*See Section V.E. I. of the USUSA Election Bylaws for A-Frame specifications.

*Space is allocated on a first-come, first-served basis according to declaration of candidacy.
Off-Campus Sign Placement

Candidates who place signs or banners off-campus should comply with the City of Logan Land Development Code. Due to length reasons, the applicable section of the code is not listed in the elections packet.
